Part III Your Activities

1 Describe completely and in detail your past, present, and planned activities. Do not refer to or repeat the purposes in your organizing document or speculate about potential future programs. Your narrative description of activities should be thorough and accurate because we determine whether you qualify for 501(c)(4) exempt status based on the information in your application.

For each past, present, or planned activity, include information that answers the following questions:

- What is the activity?
- Who conducts the activity?
- Where is the activity conducted?
- What percentage of your total time is allocated to the activity?
- How is the activity funded (for example, donations, fees, etc.) and what percentage of your overall expenses is allocated to this activity?
- How does the activity further your exempt purposes?

Demand Justice empowers citizens to organize around the nation's courts and prevent them from devolving into just another tool of economic and social oppression. We engage in grassroots lobbying activities in order to build support in Congress for proposals to reform the federal judiciary, and also wage campaigns for and against particular nominees for the federal bench.

On the legislative front, Demand Justice supports expanding the Supreme Court, adding judgeships at the district and appellate level and imposing term limits on Supreme Court justices. We have worked directly with offices in the House and Senate to introduce legislation reflecting these ideas, and organized letters of support from allied organizations urging Congress to prioritize these proposals. We have organized grassroots volunteers to directly contact their lawmakers to express support for these proposals. We have also aired television, digital and radio ads to urge Congress to consider such legislation.

Regarding judicial nominations, Demand Justice has been the leading organization emphasizing the need for more demographically and professionally diverse lawyers on the federal bench. We have lobbied lawmakers and organized grassroots volunteers to demand the prioritization of civil rights lawyers, labor lawyers and public defenders as judges. We have specifically called for fewer corporate lawyers and former prosecutors to be elevated to the bench, given the overrepresentation of those types of backgrounds within the existing ranks of federal judges. Under the Biden administration, we expect to wage paid media campaigns pressuring the Senate to confirm nominees who fit our preferred mold. We may also run ads and engage in grassroots tactics to hold lawmakers accountable if they oppose these types of nominees.

We have conducted several, high profile campaigns against judicial nominees. We vocally opposed President Trump's Supreme Court nominees; our campaigns against those picks included extensive opinion research, production of television and digital ads, staging of rallies and demonstrations, driving constituent calls, direct lobbying of senators, and outreach to key stakeholders and advocacy groups. We have pressed senators to reform their judicial screening committees that are used to identify and vet candidates for the federal bench. We have rallied opposition to so called consent packages by which the Senate used to approve judicial nominees en masse with little to no scrutiny of their qualifications. We have also produced report cards that assigned letter grades to senators based on their voting records on judicial nominations during the Trump administration. These materials are available on our website. We expect to carry forward several of these tactics in the months and years to come.

Part VI Effective Date

In general, a determination letter recognizing exemption of an organization described in section 501(c)(4) is effective as of the date of formation if: (1) its purposes and activities prior to the date of the determination letter have been consistent with the requirements for exemption; and (2) it has filed an application for recognition of exemption within 27 months from the end of the month in which it was organized.

An organization that otherwise meets the requirements for tax-exempt status and the issuance of a determination letter that does not meet the requirements for recognition from the date of formation will be recognized from the submission date of its Form 1024-A application.

1 Are you submitting this application within 27 months of the end of the month in which you were legally formed? If "Yes," continue to Part VII. Yes No

2 Are you applying for reinstatement of exemption after being automatically revoked for failure to file required returns or notices for three consecutive years? If "No," continue to Part VII. Yes No

2a Revenue Procedure 2014-11, 2014-1 C.B. 411, provides for four procedures for reinstating your tax-exempt status. Select the section of Revenue Procedure 2014-11 under which you want us to consider your reinstatement request.

- Section 4. You are seeking retroactive reinstatement under section 4 of Revenue Procedure 2014-11. By selecting this line, you attest that you meet the specified requirements of section 4, that your failure to file was not intentional, and that you have put in place procedures to file required returns or notices in the future.
- Section 5. You are seeking retroactive reinstatement under section 5 of Revenue Procedure 2014-11. By selecting this line, you attest that you meet the specified requirements of section 5, that you have filed required annual returns, that your failure to file was not intentional, and that you have put in place procedures to file required returns or notices in the future. Describe how you exercised ordinary business care and prudence in determining and attempting to comply with your filing requirements in at least one of the three years of revocation and the steps you have taken or will take to avoid or mitigate future failures to file timely returns or notices.
- Section 6. You are seeking retroactive reinstatement under section 6 of Revenue Procedure 2014-11. By selecting this line, you attest that you meet the specified requirements of section 6, that you have filed required annual returns, that your failure to file was not intentional, and that you have put in place procedures to file required returns or notices in the future. Describe how you exercised ordinary business care and prudence in determining and attempting to comply with your filing requirements in each of the three years of revocation and the steps you have taken or will take to avoid or mitigate future failures to file timely returns or notices.
- Section 7. You are seeking reinstatement under section 7 of Revenue Procedure 2014-11, effective the date you are filing this application.

Part VII Annual Filing Requirements

If you fail to file a required information return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

- 1 Certain organizations are not required to file annual information returns or notices (Form 990, Form 990-EZ, or Form 990-N, e-Postcard). If you are granted tax-exemption, are you claiming to be excused from filing Form 990, Form 990-EZ, or Form 990-N? Yes No

If "Yes," are you claiming you are excused from filing because you are:

- An affiliate of a governmental unit that meets the requirements of Revenue Procedure 95-48, 1995-2 C.B. 418
- Other (describe)

Part VIII Notification Requirement Under Section 506

Most organizations described in section 501(c)(4) are required to notify the IRS that they are operating under section 501(c)(4) within 60 days of formation by filing Form 8976, Notice of Intent to Operate Under Section 501(c)(4). If an organization doesn't submit a timely notification, a penalty will be assessed. Submission of Form 1024-A doesn't satisfy the requirement to provide notice to the IRS.

- 1 Did you file Form 8976, Notice of Intent to Operate Under Section 501(c)(4), within 60 days of your formation? If "No," explain. Yes No

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE 1. OFFICES

The principal office of Demand Justice (the “corporation”) shall be located at its principal place of business or such other place as the Board of Directors ("Board") may designate. The corporation may have such other offices as the Board may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE 2. MEMBERSHIP

2.1 Membership

The corporation shall not have members.

ARTICLE 3. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 General Powers

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the Board.

3.2 Number, Election and Tenure

The Board shall consist of not less than three Directors. Initial Directors shall be appointed by the incorporator(s). Each Director shall be at least eighteen years of age. Successor Directors shall be elected by the affirmative vote of a majority of Directors serving at the time. A Director shall hold office for a term of one year. Despite the expiration of a Director’s term, a Director shall continue to serve until the Director’s successor is elected, appointed, or designated and until the Director’s successor takes office.

3.3 Regular Meetings

By resolution, the Board may specify the date, time and place for holding regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

3.4 Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board or any committee designated and appointed by the Board may be called by or at the written request of the Chair or a majority of the Board. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings may fix any place as the place for holding any special Board or committee meeting called by them. Notice of a special meeting shall be delivered to the Directors not less than two days before the meeting according to the provisions of Section 3.7 of these By-Laws.

3.5 Meetings by Telephone or Internet

Members of the Board or any committee designated by the Board may participate in a meeting of such Board or committee by means of a conference telephone, Internet videoconferencing or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

3.6 Place of Meetings

All meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place designated by the Board, by any persons entitled to call a meeting or by a waiver of notice signed by all Directors.

3.7 Notice of Special Meetings

3.7.1 In Writing

Notices in writing may be delivered or mailed to the Director at his or her address shown on the records of the corporation. If notice is delivered via regular mail, the notice shall be deemed effective five days after being deposited in the official government mail properly addressed with postage thereon prepaid. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any special meeting need be specified in the notice of a special meeting.

3.7.2 Personal Communication

Notice may be by personal communication with the Director.

3.7.3 Electronic Transmission

Notices may be provided in an electronic transmission and be electronically transmitted. Notice in an electronic transmission is effective only with respect to those Directors that have consented, in the form of a record, to receive electronically transmitted notices and designated in such consent the address, location or system to which these notices may be electronically transmitted. A Director who has consented to receipt of electronically transmitted notices may revoke the consent by delivering a revocation to the corporation in the form of a record. Furthermore, the consent is automatically revoked if the corporation is unable to electronically transmit two consecutive notices given by the corporation, and this inability becomes known to the person responsible for giving notice. Notice provided in an electronic transmission is effective when it is electronically transmitted to an address, location or system designated by the recipient for that purpose.

3.7.4 Posting Electronic Notice

Notice may be provided to Directors who have consented to receipt of electronically transmitted notices by posting the notice on an electronic network and delivering to such Directors a separate record of the posting, together with comprehensible instructions regarding how to obtain access to the posting on the electronic network. Notice is effective when it has been posted to an electronic network and a separate record of the posting has been delivered to the recipient as provided by this Section 3.7.4.

3.8 Waiver of Notice

3.8.1 Record

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any Director under the provisions of these By-Laws, the Certificate of Incorporation or applicable law, a waiver thereof in the form of a record, including, without limitation, an electronic transmission from the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board need be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting.

3.8.2 By Attendance

The attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

3.9 Quorum

A majority of the number of Directors then serving shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any Board meeting. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

3.10 Manner of Acting

The act of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board, unless the vote of a greater number is required by these By-Laws, the Certificate of Incorporation or applicable law.

3.11 Presumption of Assent

A Director of the corporation present at a Board meeting at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her dissent or abstention is entered in the minutes of the meeting, or unless such Director files a written dissent or abstention to such action with the person acting as chair of the meeting before the adjournment thereof, or forwards such dissent or abstention to the Chair of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent or abstain shall not apply to a Director who voted in favor of such action.

3.12 Action by Board without a Meeting

Any action which could be taken at a meeting of the Board may be taken without a meeting if a written consent setting forth the action so taken is signed by each of the Directors. Such written consents may be signed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same document. Any such written consent shall be inserted in the minute book as if it were the minutes of a Board meeting.

3.13 Resignation

Any Director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Chair, the Treasurer, or the Board; or by giving oral notice at any meeting of the Directors. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if the time is not specified, upon delivery thereof and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

3.14 Removal

One or more Directors (including the entire Board) may be removed from office, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then serving.

3.15 Vacancies

Any vacancy in the position of Director may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors though less than a quorum of the Board. A Director elected to fill a vacancy shall serve the remainder of the term of his or her predecessor in office. Despite the expiration of a Director's term, a Director shall continue to serve until the Director's successor is elected, appointed, or designated and until the Director's successor takes office.

3.16 Compensation

The Directors shall receive no compensation for their service as Directors but may receive reimbursement for reasonable expenditures incurred on behalf of the corporation.

ARTICLE 4. OFFICERS

4.1 Number and Qualifications

The officers of the corporation shall be a Chair and a Treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the Board. Other officers and assistant officers, including a Secretary, may be elected or appointed by the Board, such officers and assistant officers to hold office for such period, have such authority and perform such duties as are provided in these By-Laws or as may be provided by resolution of the Board. Any officer may be assigned by the Board any additional title that the Board deems appropriate. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of Chair and Treasurer.

4.3 Resignation

Any officer may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the Chair, the Treasurer or the Board, or by giving oral or written notice at any meeting of the Board. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time is not specified, upon delivery thereof and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

4.4 Removal

Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board may be removed by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the Board whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.

4.5 Vacancies

A vacancy in any office created by the death, resignation, removal, disqualification, creation of a new office or any other cause may be filled by the Board for the unexpired portion of the term or for a new term established by the Board.

4.6 Chair

The Chair shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation, and, subject to the Board's control, shall supervise and control all of the assets, business and affairs of the corporation. The Chair may sign deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments, except when the signing and execution thereof have been expressly delegated by the Board or by these By-Laws to some other officer or agent of the corporation or are required by law to be otherwise signed or executed by some other officer or in some other manner. In general, the Chair shall perform all duties incident to the office of Chair and such other duties as are assigned to him or her by the Board from time to time. 4.9 Compensation

The salaries of the officers and agents shall be as fixed from time to time by the Board or by any person or persons to whom the Board has delegated such authority. No officer shall be prevented from receiving a salary by reason of the fact that he or she is also a Director of the corporation.

ARTICLE 5. INTERESTS OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

5.1 Compensation

Directors who receive any compensation for services in any capacity, directly or indirectly, from the corporation may not vote on matters pertaining to that Director's compensation.

The indemnification provided by this Article 7 shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person may be entitled as a matter of law or by contract. The majority of members of a standing committee must be Directors. Committee members may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the Board. Chairs of committees shall be appointed by the Board. No such committee may fill vacancies in the Board, fix compensation of Directors, amend or repeal the corporation's by-laws, or amend or repeal any resolution of the Board that states it may not be amended or repealed by a Committee.

8.2 Meetings

A committee shall meet, from time to time, when any such meeting is called by the chair of the committee, or by a majority of the members of the committee. It shall keep regular minutes of its meetings and deliver such minutes to the Board.

DEMAND JUSTICE

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST POLICY

A. Purpose

The purpose of the Conflicts of Interest Policy (the “policy”) is to protect the interest of the corporation when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or Director of the corporation or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit organizations.

B. Definitions

1. Interested Person

Any Director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

2. Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

- a. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement,
- b. A compensation arrangement with the corporation or with any entity or individual with which the corporation has a transaction or arrangement, or
- c. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration, as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under procedures outlined below, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

C. Procedures

1. Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the Directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest

- a. An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.
- b. The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.
- c. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

- d. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the corporation's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

D. Violations of the Policy

1. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a Director, principal officer or member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform such person of the basis for such belief and afford the person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
2. If, after hearing the Director's, principal officer's or member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines such person has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

E. Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

1. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.
2. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

F. Compensation

1. A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
2. A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.
3. No voting member of the governing board or any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to any committee regarding compensation.

G. Annual Statements

Each Director, principal officer and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms such person:

1. Has received a copy of the policy;
2. Has read and understands the policy;
3. Has agreed to comply with the policy; and
4. Understands the corporation is tax-exempt and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

H. Periodic Reviews

To ensure the corporation operates in a manner consistent with tax-exempt purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

1. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information and the result of arm's length bargaining.

2. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further tax-exempt purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

I. Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in this policy, the corporation may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

Dear Applicant:

We're pleased to tell you we determined you're exempt from federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(4). This letter could help resolve questions on your exempt status. Please keep it for your records.

Donors cannot deduct contributions they make to you under IRC Section 170(c)(2).

If we indicated at the top of this letter that you're required to file Form 990/990-EZ/990-N, our records show you're required to file an annual information return (Form 990 or Form 990-EZ) or electronic notice (Form 990-N, the e-Postcard). If you don't file a required return or notice for three consecutive years, your exempt status will be automatically revoked.

If we indicated at the top of this letter that an addendum applies, the enclosed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

For important information about your responsibilities as a tax-exempt organization, go to www.irs.gov/charities. Enter "4221-NC" in the search bar to view Publication 4221-NC, Compliance Guide for Tax-Exempt Organizations (Other than 501(c)(3) Public Charities and Private Foundations), which describes your recordkeeping, reporting, and disclosure requirements.

Sincerely,
